Summers, book editor; Rev. A. H. Redford, book agent; and from the missionary secretaries of the parent board at Nashville, were read and referred to appropriate committees. On motion, Rev. J. M. Anderson was appointed to make collections and solicit subscribers for the Southern Review, Dr. A. T. Biedsoe and Mrs. S. B. Herrick editors. On motion, W. B. Rowzie, A. G. Brown, and W. H. Christian were appointed a committee on memoirs, and requested to report next Tuesday. Bishop McTyeire was requested to preach a sermon suitable to the occasion. On motion, resolutions of sympathy were offered in regard to Rev. W. H. Wheel wright, now in deep personal and family affliction. He is now a member of the Ba! timore Conference, but for twenty years did hard work in the Virginia Conference.

It was ordered that the secretary transmit such resolutions to Rev. W. H. Wheel-

On motion, G. W. Nelly, W. E. Edwards, R. A. Armistead, and J. N. Wilson were appointed a committee on the Bible cause. In introducing question 20 of Discipline viz., "Are all preachers blameless in their life and official administration?"—the Bishop made some very appropriate remarks. In his early years the question offended him, and he would have had it striken out; but time and experience had convinced him of its eminent propriety. No other coclesiastical body asks such a question annually.

And why? Because when they need a pastor they first write to him, and feel around him, bear a trial sermon or have him as stated supply—and if they like him they then call him. Not so with us. Our pasters go right at once to the bomes and hearts of our the Conference, and of the minister's life and official character being balanced up to

The following elders gave brief and interesting accounts of the work in their several districts and passed an examination of character—viz.: D. P. Wills, J. A. Proctor, J. D. Blackwell, J. M. Sannders, F. M. Edwards, L. M. Lee, L. S. Reed, P. A. Peterson, E. P. Wilson, and J. B. Dey.

Rev. Dr. Martin, of the Presbyterian Church, was introduced to the Conference. The minutes of the morning session were read and approved, and the Conference adjourned with the benediction.

Danville has greatly improved since we not here ten years ago, and the very high prices at which real estate rents here is an endence of its increasing presperity.

His hap McTyeire looks well and talks well; and with seasonable and open weather and much Christian boardeling. ther and much Christian hospitality from all the ditizens we have the promise of a harmonious and profitable session.
